

NOV 17 1962

Approved For Release 1999/09/17 : CIA

CPYRGHT

FOIAb3b

2 Reporters Flee Cuba in Ship's Crew

After two days of house detention in Havana, two foreign reporters escaped from Cuba last week by signing on as crew members on the Swedish ship Collangatta. They got off in Montreal. One was Alan Anderson, a reporter for the Toronto Telegram; the other was Bjorn O. Ahlander, Washington correspondent for the Swedish Broadcasting Corp.

Sven Oeste of Stockholm's Dagens Nyheter went to Mexico City after he was released from custody. He had been held at the Havana airport when he arrived without a special visa now being required of newsmen.